Course content

Topics of this course include contemporary issues and perspectives on strategic leadership.

It is the responsibility of a strategic leader to ensure the sustainable development of their organizations. This includes providing direction and vision, setting the tone for the organization, finding creative solutions to complex challenges and translating strategy into action. Ultimately, strategic leadership is winning people for the strategic initiatives and actions.

We will discuss challenges associated with strategic leadership on a personal, team and organizational level. Topics include

- the role of a strategic leader (leadership personality and values),
- characteristics and dynamics of high performance teams,
- strategic organizational issues (energy, leading in times of crisis, inspirational leadership, organizational culture) and
- current trends (demographic change and health-oriented leadership, new work and leadership).

Course Objectives:

Knowledge
- Know the basic theoretical approaches to strategic leadership
- Understand and interpret strategic leadership activities
- Integrate tenets of various theoretical constructs to make decisions, solve problems and develop plans for leadership issues

Skill
- Apply theoretical constructs on practical problems: Select and apply concepts that are most relevant and helpful in a particular situation and develop specific recommendations

Attitude
- Build a critical, analytical, and creative mindset regarding strategic leadership challenges

Course structure

The course will include theoretical input, class and case discussions in collaboration with several firm representatives and a final project work.
