Course information

Course prerequisites

While there are no formal prerequisites for this class, some basic knowledge in finance, corporate finance, and econometrics is helpful.

This course is recommended for MBF-students in their first semester of the program.

Course content

This course is designed as an introductory level course to corporate finance at the master’s level and considers a wide range of issues that financial managers face. It investigates companies’ investments and financing decisions. Additionally, it covers topics such as agency problems, initial public offerings, and seasoned equity offerings. The overall goal of the course is to provide students with an understanding of the basic theories and practical applications of corporate finance. Students’ understanding will be deepened through the reading and discussion of a limited number of academic research articles.

Course structure

The course consists of 10 lectures of 90 minutes each, two case study sessions, two exercise sessions, and one review / Q&A session.

A (tentative) list of topics is as follows:

1) Introduction / Capital Budgeting
2) Valuation I: Cash Flows
3) Valuation II: Discount Rates
4) Real Options
5) Capital Structure
6) Valuation with Taxes / Debt and Incentives
7) Asymmetric Information and Signaling / Dividends
8) IPOs and M&As
9) Corporate Governance
10) Q&A

Course literature

The relevant chapters and additional literature will be announced in class.
