Course information

Course prerequisites
This is a PhD course. Basic knowledge of parametric regression and asymptotic theory is expected. This is a theoretical course.

Learning objectives
Students will learn to analyse panel data and work with nonparametric regressions.

Course content
The main focus of the course is panel data analysis as well as nonparametric regression.

- Nonparametric regression (Book Li Racine 2007, Cameron Trivedi 2005)
- Linear panel data models (Arellano (2003): Panel data econometrics, OUP)
- Non-linear panel data models (with a particular emphasis on binary choice models and censored regression models)
- Topics in nonparametric panel data analysis

Course literature

Core reading:
- Li and Racine (2007): Nonparametric Econometrics, Princeton; Chapters 1, 2 and 19.
- Lecture notes.

Additional course information
Only for PhD students of the University of St.Gallen

PEF students may register via regular bidding for the courses offered together by PEF and Global School in Empirical Research Methods (GSERM). Enrolment in a course is binding: students have to attend the course and take the exam. The credits will be shown on the scorecard.

All other PhD students should register for the courses offered by Global School in Empirical Research Methods (GSERM), both via bidding and via GSERM for:

- courses for the curriculum and
- optional courses with an examination. These will be listed on the scorecard under optional work (only possible if all required elective courses have already been completed).

Please register only via GSERM for:

- optional courses without an examination and
- optional courses if not all required elective courses have been completed (not shown on the scorecard).

Fact sheet version: 2.0 as of 04/06/2020, valid for Spring Semester 2020
Please note

Please note that this fact sheet alone is binding and has priority over any other information such as StudyNet (Canvas), personal databases or faculty members' websites and information provided in their lectures, etc.

Any possible references and links within the fact sheet to information provided by third parties are merely supplementary and informative in nature and are outside the University of St.Gallen's scope of responsibility and guarantee.

Documents and materials that have been submitted no later than the end of term time (CW21) are relevant to central examinations.

Binding nature of the fact sheet:

- Information about courses and examination time (central/decentral) and examination types starting from the beginning of the bidding on 23 January 2020
- Information about examinations (examination aid regulations, examination content, examination-relevant literature) for decentral examinations after the 4th semester week on 16 March 2020
- Information about examinations (examination aid regulations, examination content, examination-relevant literature) for central examinations as from the starting date for examination registration on 6 April 2020

Please consult the fact sheet again after these deadlines have expired.
