Course information

Course prerequisites

PromO07: Doctoral colloquia can only be attended if the coursework stage has been successfully completed.

PromO16/PromO17: One doctoral colloquium can be attended prior to completion of the coursework stage. A second, respectively a third doctoral colloquium can only be attended if the coursework stage has been successfully completed.

Learning objectives

Students get advice and a better understanding of how to solve the open issues within their PhD projects in the fields of accounting, auditing, controlling and finance.

Course content

Guided and structured presentation and discussion of students' thesis projects in order to benefit from exchange of ideas.

Course structure

- Kick-off-meeting at beginning of spring term. Achieve common understanding about course objectives and administrative issues (e.g., timing).
- Until mid of spring all students summarize their thesis project as one-pager. They also define three to five open points / problems / questions (open issues) they may have. This information will be passed on to all other participants.
- Until end of spring term, each student develops an idea / advice / solution to the individual open issues raised by the other participants. These suggestions will be passed on to all the other students.
- Near the end of spring term, in a block seminar, each students' thesis project, the open issues and possible solutions will be discussed.

Course literature

Summaries and open issues-papers of all participants.
