Learning objectives
This course has the following objectives:

1. To understand how multinational corporations coordinate activities across borders and cultures, and how they compete in the ever-changing global economic, social, and political environments.
2. To learn to analyse complex international management cases comprehensively and succinctly.
3. To discuss international management challenges, draw meaningful conclusions, and put down your insights in a group paper.
4. To develop problem-solving and inter-personal skills for working effectively in culturally-diverse groups.

Course content
In this course, key international management topics will be discussed, including globalisation, international strategy, internationalisation process, cross-cultural management, international human resources management, and other aspects related to international business.

Course structure and indications of the learning and teaching design

- This course counts 4 credits. Accordingly, the total average workload for students is 120 hours. This includes self-study, campus time and all examinations.
- The course will be conducted on site with the possibility to join online via Zoom.
- The recordings of the course will be available for 30 days.

The sessions will be a mixture of lectures, case discussions, and small in-class assignments.

Course literature
All readings (including case studies) will be provided through Canvas.

Examination-aid rule
Term papers
Written work must be written without outside help according to the known citation standards, and a declaration of authorship must be attached, which is available as a template on the StudentWeb.
Documentation (quotations, bibliography, etc.) must be carried out universally and consistently according to the requirements of the chosen/specified citation standard such as e.g. APA or MLA.

The legal standard is recommended for legal work (cf. by way of example: FORSTMOSER, P., OGOREK R., SCHINDLER B., Juristisches Arbeiten: Eine Anleitung für Studierende (the latest edition in each case), or according to the recommendations of the Law School).

The reference sources of information (paraphrases, quotations, etc.) that has been taken over literally or in the sense of the original text must be integrated into the text in accordance with the requirements of the citation standard used. Informative and bibliographical notes must be included as footnotes (recommendations and standards e.g. in METZGER, C., Lern- und Arbeitsstrategien (latest edition)).

For all written work at the University of St.Gallen, the indication of page numbers is mandatory, regardless of the standard chosen. Where page numbers are missing in sources, the precise designation must be made differently: chapter or section title, section number, article, etc.
